

Oliver Furrer's photographer short description

Oliver Furrer has specialised in aerial stunts and photography since 1995.

During his career he has won several skydiving world champion titles and succeeded in breaking miscellaneous world records. He played a major role in different commercials and today successfully produces his own films.

Oliver is based in Switzerland and shares with you the passion for flying adventures and professional photography.